NEW: Healthwatch North Tyneside

Healthwatch North Tyneside is keen to speak with clergy and lay ministers to discuss how best to engage with parishioners about their experiences of North Tyneside's health and care services.

The organisation is the independent voice for people using local health and social care services in North Tyneside and is here to:

- Provide information and signposting so that people get the support they need
- Listen to views and gather feedback about health and social care services
- Improve the quality of services by making sure service providers and decision makers listen to feedback and make services better
- Encourage people running services to involve local people in changes to care

If you are happy to be contacted by a Healthwatch volunteer, please get in touch with Amanda Graydon, Healthwatch North Tyneside Volunteer and Engagement Coordinator, at A.Graydon@hwnt.co.uk or 0191 263 5321 or 07434 719492.

REMINDER: Safeguarding Sunday: 10th October 2021

'Safeguarding Sunday' is an ecumenical initiative supported by the Church of England, and this year will be marked on 10th October 2021.

This is the chance for local churches to use their regular Sunday service to explore together what safer places look like, and to thank all those working behind the scenes to make our churches safer for all. For more, click here

REMINDER: Lay ministry celebration

A celebratory service honouring lay ministry in our Diocese will take place in October. The aim of the service is to affirm, commission, pray for and send out all lay ministers including Authorised Lay Ministers, Anna Chaplains, Pioneers, Readers, Children and Youth workers, Church Wardens, and anyone else who recognises their call to discipleship, both inside and outside church buildings and in their everyday lives. The service, led by Bishop Mark and Nic Denyer, the Diocese's Lay Ministry Development Officer, will be joyful, truly collaborative and informal, with lay people across the Diocese telling their stories, reading Scripture and leading prayers – no robing is required. There will be refreshments after the service, as well as a chance to connect with each other.

The service will take place at Newcastle Cathedral on Sunday 10 October at 6.30pm and will also be live streamed via the cathedral's Youtube channel

GENEROUS GIVING UPDATE

REMINDER: New Appointment for Generous Giving

We are delighted to announce the appointment of Leanne Conway-Wilcox as Generous Giving Adviser. Working alongside Generous Giving Team Leader Joanne Christie, Leanne will take a lead in encouraging, enabling and supporting parishes to live and give generously. For more, click here.

REMINDER: Additional resources added for Newcastle Diocese Generosity Week (Parish Giving Scheme)

Our friends at the Parish Giving Scheme have just created a new range of resources which can be used during Newcastle Diocese Generosity week. They include; social media content, and a short film for parishes planning to introduce the Parish Giving Scheme as part of their Generosity Week. Parishes already registered on PGS, can also download our new promotional poster to encourage further donors to join PGS during Newcastle Diocese Generosity Week. The poster can be edited to add contact details for your own PGS administrator.

REMINDER: Funding Opportunity

The Asda Foundation - Bringing Communities Back Together Grant Phase 2 (UK) is now open for applications until 5th November 2021.

Grants of between £500-£1,000 are available under three themes;

- a) Celebration Event; e.g. if you wanted to host a celebration event to welcome back elderly/vulnerable members of your community
- b) Getting Back on Track; e.g. if your church is looking to re-launch Messy Church and wishes to purchase new art and craft supplies and healthy snacks for children attending
- c) Essential Support; e.g. if your church is co-ordinating supplies for homeless shelters, delivering food or hygiene packs to those in need

All applications must be made via a local Community Champion. Click here for more information.

REMINDER: Discipling Generosity web page

We now have a new Discipling Generosity web page which brings together all current resources for teaching Generosity and growing generous disciples.

Zoom Event: 'Take Time': An RRC Workshop with Helen Connell - Wednesday 6th October 2:00-3:15

Interested in developing your spiritual life? Leading a group for whom in-person meetings are still difficult? Come along and learn about Take Time Meditations – a FREE online resource that anyone can access for personal growth and enrichment.

This introduction to Take Time will be delivered via Zoom and last about an hour on Wednesday, 6th October at 2.00 pm. Session leader, Helen Connell, will introduce you to the concept of Take Time and how it can be used in your church, school or community. It will include a twenty-minute meditation (one of a series for use in the season of Advent), information about how you can become a practitioner in your own context and an opportunity to find out what happens during a Take Time Together Group. Questions are encouraged and Helen will also give you details of coming training events and how you can access the resource online.

Helen Connell is a qualified teacher, counsellor and a practitioner for Take Time meditations. Helen first engaged with Take Time through a friend, began using the website and in 2021 became a member of a Take Time group online. Helen's enthusiasm for the Take Time process and meditation gives her a wonderful practical insight into how you can make this free online resource work for you in your own context.
