

Newcastle Diocesan Synod Deanery Synod Elections 2023

1. The parochial representatives of the laity on a deanery synod –
 - (a) are elected every three years beginning with 2020 by the annual parochial church meeting (APCM) of each parish in the deanery, and
 - (b) hold office for a term of three years beginning with the next 1 July following the date of their election.

The number of representatives to be elected from each parish is determined by a resolution of the diocesan synod no later than 31 December in the year preceding the elections.

2. The next elections are to take place at the APCM of each parish in 2023 and the Secretary to the Diocesan Synod must, no later than 31 December 2022:
 - (a) certify to each PCC Secretary the number of parochial representatives to be elected at the APCM; and
 - (b) give the Deanery Synod Secretary a copy of each certificate issued above.
3. Attached to this paper as ANNEX A is the distribution of places based on the number of people on the Electoral Roll as follows:

	Representatives to be elected
First 100 names or part of 100 names*	2
Each additional 100 (or part of 100) names.	1
Maximum number of representatives from any one Parochial Church Council	6
*A Parochial Church Council with fewer than 26 names on the roll is allocated 1 representative.

4. The distribution of places is based on the information supplied by Electoral Roll Officers or PCC Secretaries and the methodology follows previous practice. Those elected to serve will serve for a period of three years from 1 July 2023.
5. The Synod is invited to resolve that:

in respect of the election of houses of laity of the deanery synods in 2023 the number of representatives to be elected by the annual parochial church meetings shall be as set out in ANNEX A of paper DS22 10.
